

I would appreciate the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law being left alone and not weakened in any way. Any business entity already with a relationship with a customer has direct mail AND mail inserts available in their billing process and email circulars with online customers. Let's leave a privacy net in place for everyone and not sell our soles for the making of a dollar.